

What Will Heaven be Like

Introduction

People often ask the question, "What will heaven be like." Although the Bible discusses heaven, it is impossible to understand heaven's whole nature from a human perspective. Since heaven is where God lives, it must contain more physical and temporal dimensions than those found in this physical universe that God created. We cannot imagine, nor can we experience what these extra dimensions might be like in our current bodies. Even so, we are given enough information in the Bible to understand many of the things that will be different in heaven compared to our lives today. This page's information is speculation (with alternative possibilities) but is based upon what the Bible says about heaven.

At the end of the seventh day

Genesis, the first book of the Bible, says that God created the universe in six days.¹ By examining all the Bible passages that describe the creation of the universe, one can conclude that the six days of creation are six periods of time or ages that God created the universe, the Earth, and life on it. The Bible tells us that we are currently in God's seventh day of rest² and encourages us to enter into that rest.³ God's plan for the universe is to allow a giant number⁴ of spiritual beings (both angels and humans) to choose to spend eternity with Him.⁵ At the appointed time, God will call an end to the present universe⁶ and judge those who reject His invitation.⁷

The eighth day

On the eighth day, God will create again - this time an entirely new universe.⁸ The new universe will have completely different physical laws. Here are some of the differences that stand out:

- The new Earth will have no sea⁸
- There will be no Sun or moon⁹
- Gravity will be absent or significantly reduced¹⁰
- No more death, suffering, pain¹¹
- Believers will receive a new body¹²

Heaven's characteristics

The characteristics of the new creation tell us that it will be vastly different from what we are used to on Earth. Probably the most noticeable difference will be the lack of gravity. The New Jerusalem is described as a 1,500-mile cube. Structures of this size would automatically become a sphere in this universe because of gravity.¹⁰ Therefore, gravity will either be absent or significantly reduced in the new creation. There will be no sun or moon. That makes sense since there will be little or no gravity. Without gravity, the new creation would not be bound to its source of heat and light. The lack of the Sun is not a problem for the new creation since the Bible tells us that God will provide illumination by His glory.¹³

The illumination provided by God¹⁴ is probably not the same kind of electromagnetic radiation (photons) that we call light. The illumination provided by God certainly involves the wisdom and knowledge that He possesses.¹⁵ With this kind of light, there would be no need to visually see things since this would severely restrict our ability to "see" everything as God sees them. There will be no oceans, which means that there will be no water cycle. It would be difficult for a water cycle to operate without gravity. There will be the river of the water of life, which flows from the throne of God.¹⁶ Given its source, it seems likely that it may not be liquid water as we know it.

The laws of thermodynamics seem to be absent from the new creation since the Bible tells us that there will be no heat.¹⁷ In this universe, the Second Law of thermodynamics controls virtually everything that happens. The Law states that heat flows from hot bodies to cold bodies. Stars cannot shine, animals cannot consume food to produce energy to move, and chemical reactions cannot occur since all these processes require heat exchange. This Law is also called the Law of Entropy or Decay since the ultimate result of heat flow is that the universe continues to become more and more disordered. Science tells us that the universe, as we see it now, is temporary. It has a moment of creation, and without God's intervention, will eventually expand to produce a collection of cold, lifeless matter. Such a universe would not be acceptable for housing eternal beings, such as those described in the new creation. As discussed previously, the processes requiring heat flow seem to be absent from the new creation. These include the Sun, the sea and a water cycle, and growing old and dying.¹¹ Although there is described a tree (the tree of life) that bears fruit in heaven, it doesn't seem to be there for eating.

The Bible says, "the leaves of the tree are for the healing of nations¹⁸." Because violence and genocide perpetrated on Earth over the centuries, there will be a need for healing among all the people groups. The lack of eating in heaven¹⁹ goes along with the idea that thermodynamics will be absent there. Finally, the Bible says, "the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption²⁰," suggesting a release from the laws of thermodynamics.

Some Christians believe that there will be eating in heaven. They cite the great wedding feast of the Lamb. Is this meant to be taken literally? Of course, the essential part of the wedding is not the feast, but the marriage. Are we going to be married in a literal physical marriage to Jesus Christ? I think most males would feel uncomfortable with this concept. We will be with our Savior and our Father in heaven and see Him face to face. I believe that the Jewish wedding was chosen to represent the celebration that will happen in heaven since it was a most joyous and lengthy event known to the people for whom the message was given. One can be sure it will be a grand celebration, whether or not we eat food.

The new creation will be a place of extraordinary beauty and is described in terms of precious jewels and metals. Although the description may not represent literal earthly jewels, it is intended to represent the incredible beauty of its appearance, as John, the apostle, saw it. For a preview of the description, see Revelation, chapter 21, verses 10-21.

Heaven's timelessness

Heaven exists outside the dimensions of both space and time. The Bible says that God exists outside of time and created time, probably as the means of implementing cause and effect. Without cause and effect, actions don't have consequences, and choices don't have repercussions. So, the universe was temporally created for people to choose to love or reject God. Once the choices have been made, there is no longer a need for time to exist at all. So, when the Bible says God destroys the present universe, that includes the universe's dimension of time.

So, it does not matter when you die; you will end up in heaven with all the other people you know who went to be in heaven—either before or after you (relative to this universe's time scale). That includes your ancestors and descendants. Since we are not restricted by time in heaven, could you look back at your life on Earth and watch it happen? Probably not, since the Bible says that "the former things will not be remembered or come to mind⁸." When God destroys the present universe, it will have been as if it had never existed. Not even God would have access to it⁸. How do things happen in the absence of time? Good question! Instantly! There will be no more waiting for anything. Everybody will be able to talk to Jesus for an infinite "amount of time" all "simultaneously." The English language doesn't even have the right words to describe how things will be in heaven.

Where is heaven?

Asking where heaven exists is a little like asking where the center of the universe is. The universe doesn't have a center since everything is moving away from every other thing. The Bible indicates that heaven does not exist in this universe but is God's abode. The Bible says that even the highest heavens (of this universe) cannot contain God.²¹ We can never go in a spaceship and find heaven since it is not any place to travel because we are restricted to this universe's space-time dimensions. However, there is a way to get there.

What will people be like in heaven?

With physical laws being so different in heaven, it is apparent that our current bodies would not be acceptable in such a place.²² The Bible poses the question, "But someone will say, "How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?"²² The answer to the question is given in a series of comparisons:²³

Mortal vs. Heavenly Bodies
Mortal Body	Resurrection Body
perishable	imperishable
dishonor	glory
weak	powerful
natural	spiritual

To a certain degree, we will be given some of God's characteristics in heaven since we will be like Him and the glorified Jesus.²⁴ Without at least God's dimensional characteristics, we would not be able to see Him, which the Bible says we will do.²⁴ Contrary to the Mormon view of heaven²⁵, it doesn't seem that people in heaven will be either male or female.

Jesus was asked a complicated question about heaven by the Sadducees (a religious sect that did not believe in the dead's resurrection), leading us to this conclusion.²⁶ The Sadducees gave a scenario of a woman who married seven men (sequentially, since they all died prematurely) in her lifetime. They asked whose wife she would be in heaven. Jesus answered and said: "You are mistaken, not understanding the Scriptures, or the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven." (Matthew 22:29-30)

In other words, there will be no marriage or sexual differences among those in heaven since reproduction is unnecessary. This concept is supported by other biblical verses that indicate that males and females are spiritually equal.²⁷ The same concept applies to the races.²⁸ I doubt that there will be racial differences in heaven. The idea that we will no longer be married is disturbing to some people. I like to be married. From an earthly perspective, the dissolution of marriage in heaven doesn't sound like a good thing. However, in heaven, we will be "married" to Jesus, who will be our spiritual "husband."²⁹

If you are not currently a follower of Jesus Christ, you cannot understand what this will be like, and it will probably not have any appeal for you. However, if you have experienced the "highs" of following Jesus as He leads you, you will have a glimpse of how awesome this experience will be. God would not take away something good if He did not replace it with something better. Besides receiving a new body, those entering heaven will be given a new name³⁰ and incapable of sinning.³¹ Therefore, all the problems we have by being mean to each other will be gone. We will be able to enjoy each other's company without the fear of being hurt by anyone. It will be great to be physically and morally perfect and to have fellowship with others who have been likewise transformed.

What will we do in heaven?

People have the impression that heaven will consist of people sitting around on clouds, playing harps. Although some angels, 24 elders, and the saints are described as having harps in heaven, the Bible does not tell clouds.³² One of our first acts in heaven will help judge the world - specifically the angels.³³ Why do the angels need to be evaluated? Before God created the Earth, He created the angels, who, initially, all worshipped God,³⁴ being led by the most beautiful angel, Satan.³⁵ However, Satan (aka, the devil) became jealous of God and sought to take His place.³⁵ Satan managed to convince one-third of the angels to join him in rebellion.³⁶ There was war in heaven at this point between the rebellious angels of Satan and the archangel Michael/the angels of God.³⁶ Satan and his angels were cast from heaven onto the Earth.³⁶

They, cast from heaven, attempt to persuade humans on Earth to follow him in rebellion against God.³⁷ These rebellious angels are now referred to as demons.³⁸ Since there are no rebels in heaven, the angels who rebelled against God will be judged by God's people and cast into the lake of fire.³⁹ Besides acting as judges in heaven, the Bible says that we will reign with God in heaven.⁴⁰ Exactly what this reigning entail is not defined. However, we will also be serving God directly.⁴¹ Although this may sound boring at first glance, it obviously won't be since we will have direct access to the Creator of the universe.

The book of Revelation explicitly says that Jesus will be our shepherd, who will personally lead us.¹¹ Paul in 1 Corinthians says that we will see Him "face to face" and "now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I also have been fully known."⁴¹ In essence, this verse tells us that we will have the full knowledge of God, even as He currently knows each of us. That is amazing! Why atheists would not want to be part of this baffles me. Hebrews describes heaven as consisting of "thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly."⁴² So, heaven will be a big celebration. However, we know it will also be a place of righteousness and peace.⁴³ The Bible says that we cannot imagine what heaven will be like but exceed our expectations. Each of us in heaven will be "revealed in glory."⁴⁴

Who will be in heaven?

Since heaven is God's kingdom, He will be there. What is remarkable is that we have the opportunity to be there⁴⁵ and see God as He is.²⁴ Who will be in heaven with God? The angels will be there⁴⁶ and have been there since God created them. The Bible gives several lists of people who will not be in heaven.⁴⁷ A summary of the activities that keep people out of heaven is listed in the table below.

Sins That Keep Out From Heaven
sexual immorality	idolatry	adultery	prostitution
homosexual offenses	theft	greed	drunkenness
slander	swindling	impurity	witchcraft

hatred	discord	jealousy	fits of rage
selfish ambition	dissensions	factions and envy	orgies
abomination	lying	cowardice	unbelief
murderer	sorcery

The list is pretty extensive and includes some things that all of us have done. At the end of the first creation, we will appear before the great white throne of God.⁴⁸ God will go through the "books" to see if we have committed any of the deeds listed in the table above.⁴⁹ Also, our names will be checked to see if they are in the "Book of Life."

Anyone whose name is not found in the "Book of Life" will be thrown into the lake of fire, based upon the unrighteous deeds that they had done in their lives.⁵⁰ God does not grade on the curve or degree of the above sins. All people who have been guilty of any violations will be sent to the lake of fire, the second death.⁵¹ However, those who trust/believe in Jesus escape judgment and inherit eternal life in heaven (see below).⁵²

How do we get to heaven?

So how can we enter into heaven and the presence of the Holy God? What we cannot do for ourselves, God has already done for us. Jesus said, "unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."⁵³ Jesus went on to explain that the second birth is to be "born spiritually." Those who are born just once will die physically. Then they will die spiritually at the second death,⁵¹ following the Great White Throne judgment.⁴⁸ Those born twice (both physically and spiritually) will die physically but will live spiritually forever. How are people born again spiritually? Jesus said: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life. (John 3:16)

Belief in Jesus removes us from the White Throne Judgment,⁵⁴ because Jesus took the penalty (death) for our sin at the cross.⁵⁵ Those who accept Jesus as Lord and Savior are justified (declared righteous based on faith)⁵⁶ before God and can come before Him boldly⁵⁷ through the grace⁵⁸ that He has offered to all.⁵⁹ By accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior, we permit Him to change us into perfect beings ("the spirits of the righteous made perfect," Hebrews 12:22-23) in the new creation.⁶⁰ Those who reject God's provision for sin will be judged based on their sin and separated from God forever (the second death⁵¹) since God cannot allow sin/evil into the new creation.

How do we enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ? We do this through belief in Him:

- 1) Repent of your sin and selfishness. Repentance agrees with God that you have been wrong and being willing to turn from that old life to a new life⁶¹ in Christ.
- 2) Receive Jesus Christ as your Lord (God and Master) and Savior (who takes away your sin).
- 3) Receive the Holy Spirit as the promise⁶² of what God will do in your life.
- 4) Thank God for His grace and the gift that He has given you.

Once you receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, you should walk with Him every day. Jesus said, "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments" (John 14:15). Talk to Him every day in prayer and do what He says. Find a good Christian fellowship (church) and read-from your Bible every day. These things are not required to keep your salvation, but they will help you grow in your faith and obedience and experience more joy in your walk with Christ. When we come before God's throne in the new creation, it will be good to hear the words...Well done, good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.⁶³

"Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding... When the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy?" (Job 38:4, 7)

35. "Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "You had the seal of perfection, Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. "You were in Eden, the garden of God; Every precious stone was your covering: The ruby, the topaz, and the diamond; The beryl, the onyx, and the jasper; The lapis lazuli, the turquoise, and the emerald; And the gold, the workmanship of your settings and sockets, Was in you. On the day that you were created They were prepared. "You were the anointed cherub who covers, And I placed you there. You were on the holy mountain of God; You walked in the midst of the stones of fire. "You were blameless in your ways From the day you were created, Until unrighteousness was found in you. "By the abundance of your trade You were internally filled with violence, And you sinned; Therefore I have cast you as profane From the mountain of God. And I have destroyed you, O covering cherub, From the midst of the stones of fire. "Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; You corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor. I cast you to the ground; I put you before kings, That they may see you. "By the multitude of your iniquities, In the unrighteousness of your trade, You profaned your sanctuaries. Therefore I have brought fire from the midst of you; It has consumed you, And I have turned you to ashes on the Earth In the eyes of all who see you."
(Ezekiel 28:12-18)

36. Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the Earth... And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. The great dragon was hurled down--that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the Earth, and his angels with him. (Revelation 12:3-9)

37. You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. (John 8:44)
The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus. (John 13:2)

Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land?" (Acts 5:3)

Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent and for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again so that Satan will not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. (1 Corinthians 7:5)

If you forgive anyone, I also forgive him. And what I have forgiven--if there was anything to forgive--I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes. (2 Corinthians 2:10-11)

Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. (Ephesians 6:11-12)

Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. (James 4:7)

Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings. (1 Peter 5:8-9)

The great dragon was hurled down--that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the Earth, and his angels with him. (Revelation 12:9)

38. If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim that I drive out demons by Beelzebub. Now if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your followers drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. (Luke 11:18-20)

40. "You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth." (Revelation 5:10)
I answered, "Sir, you know." And he said, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore, they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them." (Revelation 7:14-15)

41. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I also have been fully known. (1 Corinthians 13:12)
42. But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all men, to the spirits of righteous men made perfect, to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel... Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire. (Hebrews 12:22-29)
43. But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness. (2 Peter 3:13)
But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. (James 3:17)
44. The mystery and glory of heaven:
- For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us. (Romans 8:18)
 - but just as it is written, "THINGS WHICH EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND EAR HAS NOT HEARD, AND WHICH HAVE NOT ENTERED THE HEART OF MAN, ALL THAT GOD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM." (1 Corinthians 2:9)
 - For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I also have been fully known. (1 Corinthians 13:12)
 - For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. (2 Corinthians 4:17-18)
 - For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; who will transform the body of our humble state into conformity with the body of His glory, by the exertion of the power that He has even to subject all things to Himself. (Philippians 3:20-21)
 - When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory. (Colossians 3:4)
 - Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, as your fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed, (1 Peter 5:1)

46. And I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands, (Revelation 5:11)
47. Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. (1 Corinthians 6:9-10)
The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. (Galatians 5:19-21)
"But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." (Revelation 21:8)
48. And I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them. (Revelation 20:11)
49. And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life; and the dead were judged from the things which were written in the books, according to their deeds. (Revelation 20:12)
50. And if anyone's name was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire. (Revelation 20:15) and nothing unclean and no one who practices abomination and lying, shall ever come into it, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life. (Revelation 21:27)
51. 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death.' (Revelation 2:11)

And death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. (Revelation 20:14)

"But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." (Revelation 21:8)

52. Eternal life is through belief in Jesus Christ:

- "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life. (John 6:47)

- "This is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. (John 17:3)

- He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by His grace we would be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (Titus 3:5-7)
- Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also. As for you, let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. This is the promise which He Himself made to us: eternal life. (1 John 2:23-25)

- having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us and which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. (Colossians 2:14)
- 56. For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law. (Romans 3:28)
